About the co-hosts

LCIA The London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA) is one of the world's leading international institutions for commercial dispute resolution. The LCIA provides efficient, flexible and impartial administration of arbitration and other ADR proceedings, regardless of location, and under any system of law. The LCIA is renowned not only for its arbitration administration services but also for its conferences and symposia.

AIPN The Association of International Petroleum Negotiators (AIPN) is the leading professional organization of commercial negotiators and energy lawyers in the international oil & gas industry. AIPN develops petroleum model contracts that are widely used throughout the industry, provides educational seminars and conferences around the world, publishes leading research on emerging energy issues and is the premiere forum for dialogue on oil and gas transactions amongst companies, government and their advisors.

The conference will cover the following topics:

- Boundary Disputes
- State Investment Disputes
- Joint Operating Agreement Disputes
- Human Rights & Environmental Disputes
- Damages in Oil & Gas Disputes
- Oil & Gas Pricing Disputes
- Oil & Gas Infrastructure Disputes
- Improving Dispute Resolution in the International Oil & Gas Business

Conference format

The conference consists of speaker panels that will address each of the listed topics. The speakers are leading advocates, counsel, experts and arbitrators in the energy field who will provide speeches, presentations, interviews, round table discussions and Q&A's in an interactive and interesting format. The number of registrants will be limited to ensure that attendees can fully interact with their colleagues and the speakers at the conference.

Who should attend?

In-house counsel of oil and gas companies, independent practitioners and law firms who represent/advise parties from the oil and gas sector, commercial, economic and technical personnel of oil and gas companies, senior officers from government departments and ministries, arbitrators and mediators interested in knowing more about oil and gas disputes, advisors and consultants in the oil and gas business, and academics and members of the local and international business community interested in, and affected by, current developments and best practice in the oil and gas business.

Opening Remarks

Tim Martin Conference Chair, Calgary, Canada
Dr Jacomijn J van Haersolte-van Hof *LCIA Director General;
Member of the LCIA Court and Board*
Graham Cooper AIPN President

09:15 - 10:45

Session One: Boundary Disputes

The delimitation of boundaries is a major area of disputes amongst sovereign states. A large majority of them deal with competing governments wanting to access oil & gas reserves. This panel will discuss sovereign boundary disputes involving oil & gas fields around the world and the role of the energy sector in those disputes.

Chair: Robert Volterra Volterra Fietta, London, UK
Speakers: Ziv Bødtker Bødtker Consulting, Oslo, Norway
Dr Derek C Smith Foley Hoag LLP, Washington DC, USA
Dr Richard Schofield King's College, London, UK

10:45 - 11:15

Break

11:15 - 12:45

Session Two: Investment treaty arbitration as a tool to protect your business in oil and gas

Energy disputes continue to dominate investment treaty arbitrations, yielding some of the largest arbitration awards in history. Energy companies now habitually consider investment arbitration as an essential tool in their arsenal when undertaking large projects abroad, including oil and gas investments. In light of the importance of investment treaty protection, this panel will address some of the most challenging current issues in investment disputes. The discussion will cover the need to ensure effective investment structuring in light of recent cases dealing with holding companies and complex business structures. It will also address the legal status of State petroleum contracts in the "Age of Trump". It will also discuss the future of claims under the Energy Charter Treaty protecting investments within the EU, in the light of the decision of the European Court of Justice in Achmea and the policy approach of the European Commission to investment treaty arbitration

Chair: Jason Doughty Kosmos Energy, Dallas, USA
Speakers: John P Bowman King & Spalding LLP, Houston, USA
Nigel Blackaby Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer US LLP, Washington DC, USA
Dr Kate Parlett 20 Essex Street, London, UK

12:45 - 14:00

Lunch

14:00 - 15:30

Session Three: Joint Operating Agreement Disputes

The Joint Operating Agreement (JOA) is one of the cornerstone contracts in the upstream oil & gas business. Most petroleum upstream investments are made through JOAs, which generate some of the most complex and high impact disputes in the industry. The AIPN recently commissioned a research study to complete the most comprehensive review of JOA disputes from around the world. This panel will conduct the first public discussion of the results from this study.

Chair: Tim Martin Northumberland Chambers, Calgary, Canada
Speakers: John Gilbert Bracewell LLP, London, UK
Ann Ryan Robertson Locke Lord LLP, Houston, USA
