Dispute Resolution in the International Energy Business

About AIEN
www.aien.org

The Association of International Energy Negotiators (AIEN) is the leading professional membership organization of commercial negotiators and energy lawyers in the international energy industry, serving more than 2,800 professionals in some 110 countries. AIEN develops model contracts that are widely used throughout the industry, provides educational seminars and conferences around the world, publishes leading research on emerging energy issues and is the premier forum for dialogue on energy transactions amongst companies, government and their advisors.

About ICDR
www.icdr.org

Established in 1996 as the global component of the American Arbitration Association®, the International Centre for Dispute Resolution® (ICDR®) provides conflict-management services in more than 80 countries with a staff fluent in 14 languages. The ICDR's administrative services include assisting in the appointment of mediators and arbitrators, setting hearings, and providing users with information on dispute resolution options, including settlement through mediation. Ultimately, the ICDR aims to move cases through arbitration or mediation in a fair and impartial manner until completion.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2024

09:00 – 10:30  Session One: Damages in Energy Disputes

The primary remedy provided in international energy arbitration awards is damages, whether in state investment or commercial disputes. This segment will review the kinds of valuation methods and compensation standards applied in such disputes and how damages are assessed in large, complex energy transactions.

Chair: Kathleen Paisley, Ambos NBGO, Brussels, Belgium
Laura Hardin, Alavarez & Marshall, Houston, USA
Daniel Johnston, Petroleum Economist, Dallas, USA
Herfried Woss, Woss & Partners, Washington DC, USA

10:30 – 11:00  Refreshment Break
Constellation Ballroom Foyer

11:00 – 12:30  Session Two: Alternative Energy Disputes

As alternative energy sources expand their share of energy projects, so do their disputes. This panel will discuss emerging disputes from the solar, wind, nuclear and power generation industries. These include state investment, joint venture, financing, IP technology, licensing, regulatory and construction disputes.

Chair: Marcela Berdion-Straub, TotalEnergies, Houston, USA
Oisin Brady, Independent Expert, Strasbourg, France
Gretta Walters, Chaffetz Lindsey, New York, USA
Nathan O’Malley, Mussick Peeler, Los Angeles, USA

12:30 - 14:00  Luncheon with Presentation: Upstream Processes to Resolve Energy Disputes
Constellation Ballroom East

Steve Andersen, AAA-ICDR, Los Angeles, USA
Cecilia Azar, Galicia Abogados, Mexico City, Mexico
Teresa García-Reyes, Baker Hughes, Houston, USA

14:00 – 15:30  Session Three: Energy Infrastructure Disputes

Energy companies are involved in some of the largest construction projects in the world. This session provides an in-depth analysis of the infrastructure and construction disputes that arise in the international energy business.

Chair: Elisabeth Eljuri, Westlawn Americas Offshore, Houston, USA

15:30 – 16:00  Refreshment Break
Constellation Ballroom Foyer

16:00 – 17:30  Session Four: The Client’s View of International Energy Disputes

The clients provide their overview of the important issues in energy disputes that impact their companies. This panel of in-house counsel will discuss the critical issues from their perspective that arise from energy disputes, including what was discussed throughout this conference. You will hear what they think is important in resolving these kinds of disputes and how they prefer them to be resolved.

Chair: Sasha Carbone, AAA-ICDR, New York, USA
Chris Brierly, bp, London, UK
Teresa Garcia-Reyes, Baker Hughes, Houston, USA
Almudena Otero De La Vega, CFE, Mexico City, Mexico
